

CHAPTER 4.00 - CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

AT-RISK AND ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAMS

4.12

The Superintendent or designee shall develop, for the Henry County Board of Education's approval, a plan for at-risk students addressing drop-out prevention. Components of the plans for academically at-risk students may include but are not limited to High Hopes grants/programs, Children's First, Title I, Title VI, Title IV Safe and Drug Free Schools programs, and other state, federal, or local initiatives.

The Board shall also maintain an alternative education program for students who, because of disciplinary problems, cannot be appropriately educated in the regular school environment or who, because of academic difficulty, have been identified as at-risk of academic failure.

The Henry County Board of Education maintains a comprehensive career awareness program in middle schools to help students appreciate the value of a high school education and understand the consequences of not acquiring a high school diploma. The Board places strong emphasis on for early identification of and intervention for students deemed to be academically at-risk.
