SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

4.44

Any school social function shall be sponsored by an instructional staff member and shall be approved by the principal prior to scheduling. Baccalaureate ceremonies are not school functions.

Henry County School System faculty members shall be encouraged to attend social functions.

All Henry County school functions including field trips, extracurricular events, and recreational activities such as picnics, parties, and excursions under the sponsorship of the school shall have a sponsor and an appropriate number of chaperones as determined by the school principal. A sponsor is a professional Henry County Board of Education employee who is currently certified by the State Department of Education. Chaperones are volunteers approved by the principal. Participants in these events, other than sponsors and chaperones, shall be limited to school-age students (under 21) unless approved by the school principal.
