

Could your bank account survive a serious illness?

Be prepared with group critical illness insurance from Unum.

Who's at risk?

- The odds of developing cancer during a lifetime are one in two for men and one in three for women.¹
- In 2006, the national average for hospital charges for a heart attack with major complications was $28,746.²

How can critical illness insurance help?

Critical illness insurance can pay a lump sum benefit at the diagnosis of a covered illness. You choose the level of coverage — from $5,000 to $50,000 — and you can use the money any way you see fit.

Covered conditions
Heart attack	Blindness
Major organ failure	End-stage renal (kidney) failure
Occupational HIV	Coronary artery bypass surgery; pays 25% of lump sum benefit
Benign brain tumor
Covered conditions with time limitations
Stroke	Evidence of persistent neurological deficits confirmed by a neurologist at least 30 days after the event
Coma	Coma resulting from severe traumatic brain injury lasting for a period of 14 or more consecutive days
Permanent paralysis	Complete and permanent loss of the use of two or more limbs for continuous 90 days as a result of a covered accident
Optional cancer conditions
If selected by your employer, you may choose to select this benefit for an additional premium.
Cancer	Carcinoma in situ; ³ pays 25% of lump sum benefit

Please see policy definitions for complete details about these covered conditions.

Key advantage

You can use this coverage more than once. If you receive a full benefit payout for a covered illness, your coverage can be continued for the remaining covered conditions. The diagnosis of a new covered illness must occur at least 90 days after the most recent diagnosis. Each condition is payable once per lifetime.

Three reasons to buy this coverage at work

1. You get affordable rates when you buy this coverage through your employer, and the premiums are conveniently deducted from your paycheck.
2. Coverage is portable. You may take the coverage with you if you leave the company or retire without having to answer new health questions. Unum will bill you directly for the same premium amount.
3. Coverage becomes effective on the first day of the month in which payroll deductions begin.
