Alyson Keenom Named Principal of Bonaire Middle School

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA - The Houston County Board of Education appointed Alyson Keenom as principal of Bonaire Middle School during the Board meeting held March 12, 2019. Keenom has served as the Houston County High School assistant principal for instruction since 2013.

“I am excited and grateful for this opportunity to serve the Bonaire Middle School students, parents, staff and community,” said Keenom. “I look forward to continuing the work of a tradition of excellence in academics and character so every child can succeed.”

She has been with the Houston County School System for 15 years, beginning her teaching career in 2004 at Houston County High as a math teacher. Currently she is working on a doctorate at Columbus State University. Keenom earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Secondary Mathematics Education from Valdosta State University. In addition, she has a master’s and specialist degree in educational leadership from Georgia College and State University.

She is married to Chris Keenom, a civilian at Robins Air Force Base. They have two sons, Chace, a fourth grader, and Colton, a kindergartener.

Bonaire Middle is located at 125 Highway 96 East in Bonaire. For more information, please contact Keenom at 478-988-6340, ext. 32614, or Alyson.Keenom@hcbe.net.
