Huntington Middle Students Win State FCCLA Awards

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA - Huntington Middle School Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) members attended the Georgia FCCLA State Leadership Conference March 15 - 17 in Atlanta. Huntington's students brought home two state awards from STAR Event Competitions.

Congratulations to the following students:

- Jazmin Heath - Silver medal, 3rd place, Recycle and Redesign, Junior (pictured);
- Bryston Tharpe - 2nd place, Toys that Teach, Junior.

FCCLA is a national student organization that helps young men and women become leaders and address important personal, family, work and societal issues through family and consumer sciences education. The organization has involved more than ten million youth since its founding in 1945.

Huntington Middle School is located at 206 Wellborn Road in Warner Robins. Dr. Gwendolyn Taylor serves as principal. For more information about Georgia FCCLA, visit www.gafccla.com.
