Mark Sams Named Principal of Feagin Mill Middle School

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA - The Houston County Board of Education appointed Mark Sams as principal of Feagin Mill Middle School during a Board of Education meeting held today, May 29, 2019. Sams is currently an assistant principal at Warner Robins High School and has been with the district for 21 years.

“I want to thank Dr. Scott, the executive cabinet and our board members for this opportunity,” said Sams. “I am looking forward to working with the Feagin Mill Middle staff, students, families and surrounding community. It’s great to come home to the pack!”

After graduating from Warner Robins High, Sams earned a Bachelor of Science in Education from Georgia College and State University. He completed a Master of Arts in History Education and an Educational Specialist in Curriculum and Instruction with Piedmont College. Sams began his teaching career in 1998 at Feagin Mill Middle School. He has served the district in his current position since 2016.

He is married to Aimee Tilghman Sams. They have two children - Shane, who is married to Kylie, and Allyson, who is married to Kyle Floyd - and one grandson, Barrett Sams.

Feagin Mill Middle School is located at 1200 Feagin Mill Road in Warner Robins. For more information, please contact Sams at 478-953-0430, ext. 34435, or Mark.Sams@hcbe.net.
