RAFB Brings Motivational Performer Mark Kirsch to Huntington Middle

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Motivational speaker and performer Mark Kirsch will visit Huntington Middle School on Sept. 25. Kirsch will talk about fulfilling his own dreams and inspire students to succeed. Topics include: health and fitness, determination and achieving goals through hard work and healthy lifestyle decisions.

He will visit with students as follows:

- 8:20 – 9:25 a.m., 6th grade;
- 9:40 – 10:45 a.m., 7th grade; and
- 12:25 – 1:35 p.m., 8th grade.

Robins Air Force Base arranged for Strongman Kirsch to visit the school. Kirsch performs “Man vs. Jumbo Jets” at air shows around the country and will pull a C-130 when he performs at the Thunder over Georgia Air Show, held Sept. 28 and 29 at Robins Air Force Base. For more information, please contact Robins AFB School Liaison Officer Renee Daughtry at 478-327-5524.

Huntington Middle is located at 206 Wellborn Road in Warner Robins. Principal Dr. Gwendolyn Taylor may be reached at 478-542-2240.

More about Mark Kirsch

Kirsch is a modern day Hercules. His "Man vs. Jumbo Jet" is the only act of its kind in the world and is something that you have to see to believe. His immense power and intense determination enable him to pull massive objects like Jumbo Jets, C-130's, airliners, buses, firetrucks, semi-trucks filled with products, loaded with tractors, tanks, equipment and...most anything else that others deem humanly impossible. Mark is a fantastic showman, entertainer and superb draw at every highly anticipated performance. Whether being a living super hero on the tarmac thrilling hundreds of thousands of spectators every year or as an inspirational speaker talking about fulfilling his own dreams and aspirations...Mark Kirsch a once-in-a-lifetime talent is truly living the American Dream! Only 1 in 300,000,000 Americans can say they pull airplanes for a living...and that one is Mark Kirsch!
