Houston County High Wins National FCCLA Awards

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Houston County High School Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) members attended the National Leadership Conference in Atlanta during the summer. The students brought home two Gold awards and one Silver.

Congratulations to the following award-winners:

- Emma Owens and Maddy Hagemann – Gold in Focus on Children;
- Elizabeth Deal – Gold in Environmental Ambassador; and
- Mary DeTota and Dalton Vasquez – Silver in Chapter Service Display Project.

In addition, the chapter was named the 2018 Families First National Program High School Overall Winner. The school was recognized with a plaque and $1,000 check for their outreach project “Frozen Meals, Warm Hearts” in partnership with Georgia Heart of Hospice. The students prepared homemade, freezer meals for local Hospice families.
