Dr. Kasandra King Named Principal of Morningside Elementary School

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Houston County Board of Education appointed Dr. Kasandra King as principal of Morningside Elementary School at the Board meeting held Feb. 13, 2018. Currently she is the assistant principal for instruction at Morningside Elementary School. She has worked in the district for 13 years.

“I am both humbled and excited for the opportunity to serve the students, faculty and parents of Morningside Elementary in this new role,” said Dr. King. “I am confident that together we will continue to make great gains!”

Dr. King is a native of Cordele and 1986 graduate of Crisp County High School. After serving in the United States Army, she earned her bachelor’s degree in Early Childhood Education from Troy University. Her teaching career began in the Liberty County School System (Hinesville, Ga.) as a fourth grade teacher. She taught in Liberty for three years before becoming a part of the Houston County School System as a teacher at Centerville Elementary School. After six years at Centerville, she became the Assistant Principal of Discipline at Morningside and Tucker Elementary for three years. For the past four years, Dr. King served as Assistant Principal for Instruction at Morningside.

She holds a doctorate from Jones International University and a specialist from Nova Southeastern University. She has also earned a master’s degree from Walden University. Dr. King has been married to Bernard, her high school sweetheart, for 31 years. They are the proud parents of three sons and eight grandchildren.

Morningside Elementary School is located at 1206 Morningside Drive in Perry. For more information, please contact Dr. King at Kasandra.King@hcbe.net or 478-988-6261.
