McClintic Named Outstanding Special Education Director of the Year

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Dr. Jenny McClintic, Director of Student Services for the district, was named the Outstanding New Special Education Director by the Georgia Council of Administrators of Special Education (G-CASE). She was honored on March 7 at the G-CASE Spring Conference held in Athens.

“I am honored to have received such a prestigious award and even more proud to bring it home to Houston County,” said Dr. McClintic. “It is a reflection of the dedication of our special education team. We strive to abide by The Houston County Way and do what is best for each student.”

This award is presented annually to a special education director who has performed in an outstanding manner during their tenure of three or less years as a director. The Assistant Superintendent for Student Services, Dr. Zabrina Cannady, nominated Dr. McClintic for the award.

For more information, please contact McClintic at 478-988-6216, ext. 10605, or visit <http://gcase.schoolinsites.com/>.
