Jody Dean Named Principal of Northside High School

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA - The Houston County Board of Education appointed Jody Dean as principal of Northside High School at the Board meeting on Mar. 13, 2018. Dean currently serves as a Coordinator for Student Services in the district. Previously he was an assistant principal at Northside High.

“I’m very excited to come home to Northside High School,” commented Dean. “It is a great honor to have the opportunity to work with this incredible school family.”

He taught high school English for 12 years before moving into administration at Northside in 2011. Dean has worked in the field of education for 19 years, with 18 years in Houston County.

Currently he is enrolled in the doctoral program with Columbus State University. Dean has earned a specialist degree from Georgia College and State University, a master’s s from Albany State University and a bachelor’s from Valdosta State University.

He is married to Sara Dean, a teacher at Langston Road Elementary School. They have been married for 11 years and have three children who attend Houston County Schools.

Northside High School is located at 926 Green Street in Warner Robins. For more information, please contact Dean at Jody.Dean@hcbe.net or 478-218-4618, ext. 27915.
