Dr. Greg Peavy Named Principal of Parkwood Elementary School

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Houston County Board of Education appointed Dr. Greg Peavy as principal of Parkwood Elementary School at the Board meeting held today, Feb. 13, 2018. Currently Dr. Peavy serves as principal of Northside High School.

“I am extremely excited to remain in the Northside community by becoming a Parkwood Eagle,” said Peavy. “I look forward to serving the students, parents and staff of a wonderful elementary school. Together we will work to have a positive impact in the lives of each of our students.”

Dr. Peavy is a native of Warner Robins and has been an educator in the Houston County School System since 1993. He graduated from Warner Robins High School in 1989 and earned a Bachelor of Music Education from Columbus State University in 1993. Dr. Peavy also holds both a Master and Specialist in Educational Leadership from Georgia College and State University. He earned his Doctorate in Educational Administration from Argosy University.

Dr. Peavy began his teaching career in 1993 at Lindsey Elementary School as a music teacher. He joined the Northside High School faculty in 1994 as Director of Bands. He moved into administration in 1999 after six years in the classroom.

He has been married to Paula, his high school sweetheart, since 1993. His wife is also an educator in the district. They have two children, Morgan and Colin, who are both Northside High graduates.

Parkwood Elementary School is located at 503 Parkwood Drive in Warner Robins. For more information, please contact Dr. Peavy at Greg.Peavy@hcbe.net.
