Mossy Creek Middle Student Wins System Spelling Bee Runner-up from Langston Road Elementary

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Mossy Creek Middle School student Tori Teague won the Houston County Board of Education 2018 Spelling Bee today. She was the top speller out of 28 contestants, winning with the correct spelling of the final word “barrage.” Langston Road Elementary School student Grace Moon won second place. The word missed prior to Tori being declared the winner was “baba.”

Tori and Grace (pictured from left) will both compete at the District 6 Spelling Bee at on Feb. 24 at 10:00 a.m. Lilyanna Cattani from Northside Middle School qualified to attend the district bee as an alternate.

The District 6 winner and runner-up will advance to the State Spelling Bee, which will be in Atlanta at Georgia State University on Mar. 16. The State Spelling Bee Procedures, Rules and Regulations were followed for the contest. A vocabulary round is included to align with region and state spelling bees. Amy Myers, Eagle Springs Elementary speech and language pathologist, called out the words. The local Bee is sponsored by the Georgia Association of Educators through the local Houston Association of Educators.

Each school sent a student to the system competition. In addition to the system winners and alterante, the school-level Spelling Bee winners are:
