WRHS Symphonic Band Chosen for Prestigious Band Festival

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Warner Robins High School Symphonic Band made school history by performing an “invitation-only” concert at the 33rd annual University of Alabama High School Honor Band Festival held in February. Warner Robins High’s band was one of only four high school bands to perform.

Band Director Dr. Todd Howell said, “Our band made school history by performing at this ‘invitation-only’ concert. Our band was one of only four high school bands to perform, with two from Georgia and two from Alabama. This was a very prestigious invitation and the students performed incredibly well. I’m so incredibly proud of these fantastic young ladies and gentlemen.”

The University of Alabama Honor Band Festival is an event developed to recognize the achievements of exceptional high school musicians. The festival weekend includes clinics presented by the faculty of the University of Alabama School of Music and concerts presented by the Alabama Symphonic Band, the Alabama Wind Ensemble and the “SPECTRUM” concert, which features several wind and percussion ensembles as well as the 400-member Million Dollar Band.
