School Nutrition Wins National USDA Best Practices Awards

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Houston County School Nutrition Program was presented a USDA Best Practices State Award in the category of Fiscal Management at the Annual Georgia School Nutrition Association luncheon. This is Houston County’s seventh USDA Best Practice awards in six years.

Director of School Nutrition, Meredith Potter, said, “I am proud to work with a team that continues to innovate in our professional field.” She is pictured at the banquet with the award certificate.

This award acknowledged creative solutions within the procurement process to maintain uninterrupted service of fresh, healthy meals to students. Previous honors have recognized innovative practices for healthy environments, training methods and program management.

training methods and program management.
