Subject: COMPUTER CLASSES

Beginning August 18, 2014, several Houston County School System employees will once again offer basic computer classes free of charge to our adult community. The computer classes will be taught on two Monday nights at each location, with different material covered each of the nights. Those attending both classes will receive a certificate of completion.

Due to the large number of citizens that called and expressed interest in computer training, we will be offering classes in different parts of the county. Each site will take no more than fifty-six (56) participants. Houston County Crossroads Center will be limited to 22 participants.

Our schedule is as follows:

Veterans High School August 18, 2014 August 25, 2014	Northside High School September 8, 2014 September 15, 2014	Perry High School September 22, 2014 September 29, 2014
Houston County Career Academy October 20, 2014 October 27, 2014	Houston County High November 3, 2014 November 10, 2014	Warner Robins High School January 12, 2015 January 26, 2015
Houston County Crossroads Center February 2, 2015 February 9, 2015
