

Mrs. Mary Ann Gore

Mrs. Mary Ann Gore was born in Tampa, Florida on November 27, 1944. She graduated from McEvoy High School in Macon in 1962. After earning a math degree at Wesleyan College, she began her teaching career at Northside High in 1966.

She transferred to Warner Robins High in 1970. The first AP teacher in Houston County, she introduced the advanced level of AP Calculus to the system. In addition to serving as Mu Alpha Theta sponsor and math team coach, she wrote grants and volunteered to help the school earn School of Excellence.

Her numerous awards in Houston County include: system Gifted Teacher of the Year, four-time STAR Teacher, Georgia Presidential Award for Math and Science, and Outstanding AP Teacher in the Southeast Region. In addition, she presented many workshops in the system and at the state level, and she served as a College Board consultant. She also co-authored Work Smarter, Not Harder, Calculus lab manuals.

After serving in the system for 30 years, she retired in 2000 and continues to live in Warner Robins. Since 2008, Mrs. Gore has taught at Central Fellowship. In addition to active membership at Central Baptist Church, she spends as much time as possible with her husband, Richard, and two children, Andrea and Doug. They are blessed with three grandchildren, Brittany, Brandon and Brady.

It is a blessing to have been her student and to be changed because of her impact in my life. ~ Lance Slade, MD, former student

Her mathematical ability and her compassion for all students is representative of a top-notch teacher. She is a sterling example of an excellent teacher. ~ Barbara Hawkins, colleague
