AND
DISTRICT 117 BUS DRIVERS – IEA/NEA

WHEREAS, the District 117 Bus Drivers, IEA-NEA (Bus Drivers), and the Board of Education of Jacksonville School District 117 (Board), inadvertently overlooked one item which was part of the tentative agreement entered into on April 7, 2016, as a part of the settlement of the successor collective bargaining agreement 2015-2020 which provided each Bus Monitor, who was employed upon the ratification of the CBA, would receive one-time lump sum payment of two hundred dollars ($200.00);

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein, the Bus Drivers and Board do hereby agree to provide:

1. That each Bus Monitor, who was employed on the date the 2015-2020 successor Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) was ratified by both parties, will be paid a one-time lump sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00) as a part of the District 117's next regular payroll.

2. The $200.00 payment is not a recurring District 117 obligation in any subsequent fiscal year, but is a one-time lump sum payment.

3. This Memorandum of Understanding is a full, final and complete understanding between the parties hereto.

4. Each party represents to the other that the representatives who execute this Memorandum of Understanding on behalf of each party have the authority under the law to bind their party to the terms and conditions contained herein.
