

ARIZONA

Click Here for Live Weather Webcam

34° 29' 24" N, 114° 18' 32" W

LAKE HAVASU CITY

Havasu (hav-uh-soo)

Founded in 1963

Known as the "West Coast of Arizona"

Home of the London Bridge

Robert P. McCulloch, Sr. purchased the bridge for $2.46 million. It was meticulously disassembled in London in the late 1960s, dismantled and shipped by boat from England to the United States and then reassembled on a peninsula on Lake Havasu in 1971.

The word Havasu means blue green water in the Havasupai language.

Lake Havasu is a man-made lake formed by Parker Dam on the Colorado River.

Havasu has a total of 17 city parks, 3 dog parks plus Lake Havasu State Park.

Average commute time:
16 minutes

2.5 hour drive to Las Vegas

3.5 hour drive to Phoenix

130+ Lake Havasu City features a wide variety of restaurants & cafes; such as American, Asian, Italian, Mediterranean, and Mexican.

Recreation

- Off-roading
- Fishing
- Hiking
- Beaches & campsites
- Rock climbing
- Cycling
- Cycling
- Boating
- Scuba diving
- Paddle sports
- Wakeboarding
- Waterskiing

Lake Havasu City has been featured in 8 movies and 9 episodes of different reality TV series.

Lake Havasu City received 1" of snow on December 31, 2014. The first snowfall in 30 years.

Winter Lows

40-70°F

AVERAGE TEMPERATURE

Summer Highs

100-120°F

9 MONTHS FLIP FLOP WEATHER

Locals refer to Lake Havasu City's unique street design as a plate of spaghetti due to the very few straight roads in our town.

LAKE HAVASU CITY OFFERS THE AMENITIES OF A BIG CITY WITH THE "FEEL" OF A SMALL TOWN.

Population:

55.4 THOUSAND (2017)

300 days of sunshine

400 miles of stunning shoreline

60 miles of lake & river waterways