

Hava Bites

A Monthly Food Service Report
 Christopher Gallaga December 2018

Program Updates

- ✓ December 2018
 - The last Kids in the Kitchen of '18 had Ms. Donna teaching students make take-home gift jars of cookie and cocoa mix. Chef Chris assisted by baking (and eating) some of the cookies.
 - Our Gyro sandwich was appreciated by students at Thunderbolt and the High School.
 - Chef Chris and Taher were featured in Havasu, Arizona's Coastal Life, speaking of their Mission; wholesome, tasty, chef-made school food, on a budget, among other things.
 - Thunderbolt students recognized the Food Service as Hero's among us. They presented flowers and gifts along with hearty applause to our team for their tireless work.
 - Gingerbread Cookies and Christmas turkey were served for school lunch on Dec 19th.

- ✓ January Preview
 - Look for the new Home-Style plated lunch counter at both MS and HS.
 - Kids in the kitchen is January 24th.
 - This month look for our Ham and Cheese Puff Pastry LTO @ HS Jan 16th and MS Jan 17th.
 - Have a chance to win prizes & fun on January 23rd at our student appreciation lunch.

Balancing act

As head of the Lake Havasu Unified School District, Taher is a man of many talents. In addition to his administrative duties, he is a skilled juggler and a talented chef. He recently performed a balancing act with a stack of fruit on his head, showcasing his unique skills and sense of humor.
