

FAMILY FUN ACTIVITIES

when you're running out of things to do

01.

NATURAL DYE FOR EASTER EGGS

using items likely in your kitchen, experiment with natural dyes for Easter eggs

02.

STAR GAZING

stay up late and head outside to check out the constellations! there are free apps to download to your phone that can show you the stars and constellations as you hold your phone or tablet up to the sky

03.

READING BINGO

print out reading bingo page for each kiddo and get reading to earn a bingo! offer a reward basket with small treats or toys, 04.

SCAVENGER HUNT

have the kids create or simply print out a list of items to hunt for, then head outside to begin the search

...and don't forget to take care of yourself! check us out on Facebook to take a self assessment of your own self-care practices

We all thrive in a world with structure and predictability. With the disruption to our daily routines during the stay at home order, it becomes so important to develop new routines at home that are educational, playful and most of all, focuses on bonding as this will help both you and your child during unsettling times. By now, you may have exhausted your creative brain on activities to fill the days of sheltering in place. Weekly, I will share some ideas on activities that your family may enjoy. I'd also like you to share any creative activities your family has enjoyed so I am able to pass those ideas along too! Below are links for articles or recipes shown on the left. Stay safe and enjoy each other!

<https://www.marthastewart.com/267850/dyeing-eggs-naturally>

<https://igamemom.com/star-gazing-apps-skyview-free-star-walk/>

<https://www.thecozyredcottage.com/2018/02/reading-bingo-free-printable.html>

<https://www.designdazzle.com/outdoor-scavenger-hunt-and-smores-printable/>