NOTE: Illinois law provides that a person who knowingly enrolls or attempts to enroll in the schools of a school district on a tuition-free basis – a pupil known by that person to be a nonresident of the district – will be guilty of a Class C misdemeanor. Illinois law also provides that a person who knowingly or willfully presents to any school district any false information regarding the residency of a pupil for the purpose of enabling that pupil to attend any school in that district without the payment of a nonresident tuition charge, will be guilty of a Class C misdemeanor.
