1 Events which enhance social development may be conducted by schools but must not interfere with the
2 scholastic program in any school.

3
4 Student organizations may sponsor social events which are planned under the guidance of club sponsors
5 or school administrators, scheduled well in advance, and serve to complement the curricular program.
6 Minimal admission fees may be charged to defray costs.

7
8 Social events scheduled for out-of-school hours shall be approved by the principal. Activities scheduled
9 outside of the system must be approved by the director of schools and/or the Board.

10
11 Annual school proms have board approval provided that adequate supervision is secured.
