911 Remembrance: NEVER FORGET

By Josh Czeto and Skylar Jenkins

Americans should, even as we remember the devastation and heartbreak, take pause to appreciate and recommit ourselves to the freedom that is at the heart of our American nation.

Senior Highlight

By: Alexis Sheffler & Rylee Baker

Logan Alcorn was born in Brownwood, Tx. He has one brother who some of you might know, Levi Alcorn.

Logan attended Rising Star ISD until the second grade then moved to May ISD for the rest of his school years.

Logan would like to follow in his grandfather's footsteps and pursue a career in agriculture after he graduates.

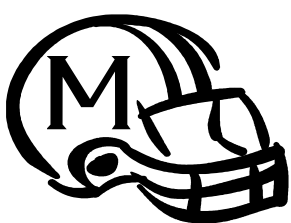

Logan enjoys helping out his grandparents and hanging out with family and friends. Fun fact about Logan: he has been able to grow a full beard since freshman year.

Concession Stand

- Sept. 1st Kindergarten
- Sept. 8th PK, First

PTC will provide a coupon for a drink and an entrée for each person that works the concession stand.

Sports

Varsity Boys

By Jacob Brown and Angel Carbajal

The scrimmage against Robert Lee was good practice for the May Tigers. They executed plays nicely and worked as a team.

The Newcastle scrimmage also proved to be a positive experience for the May Tigers. The game definitely prepared the Tigers for a great season ahead.
