

Title I Parents Right-to-Know teacher Qualifications Procedures

Federal guidelines require that school districts provide a process by which parents may request the qualifications of their child's teacher, insuring that the teacher meets Certification requirements set by the state. Parents have a right to know the following information:

- (1) Whether the teacher has met state qualifications for the grade levels and subjects areas in which the teacher provides instruction;
- (2) Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which state qualifications have been waived;
- (3) The baccalaureate degree major of the teacher and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher, and the field of discipline of the certification or degree;
- (4) Whether the child is provided services by paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualifications.

To request this information, please complete forms sent home or contact your school principal.
