IDENTIFY REALISTIC FICTION

Teaching Point: Today I want to remind you that thinking about what someone might do in real life can help you determine if a story is realistic fiction. Review the anchor chart on p. 19. When I read "Just Lunch," I noticed that Daniel’s actions and thoughts matched what I might have done in a similar situation. This helps me identify that this story is realistic fiction.

ELL Targeted Support

Tell students that realistic fiction tells a story with characters, a setting, and a plot. The character(s) usually face a problem.

Use a T-chart to list elements of realistic fiction on one side. Provide strips with definitions and have students place the definitions next to the appropriate element. Echo read the chart with students.

ELL Targeted Support: Respond to Questions. Tell students that responding to questions about characters is a good way to check that they understood a text well.

ELL Targeted Support: DESCRIBE SETTING, PROBLEM

Have students describe setting, problem, and possible solutions.
