1. Place the Student Copy in front of the student. Point to the names on the Student Copy as you read them:

   "This is a story about Victor, Joe, Jim and Tom. I want you to read this story to me. You'll have 1 minute to read as much as you can. When I say "begin," start reading aloud at the top of the page. Do your best reading. If you have trouble with a word, I'll tell it to you. Do you have any questions? Begin."

2. Start the timer.
3. While the student is reading, mark errors with a slash (/).
4. At 1 minute, mark the last word read with a bracket ( ]).
5. When the student gets to a logical stopping place, say "Stop."

Victor was nine years old when he visited his very first amusement	12 park. He went with his friends Joe, Jim, and Tom. Joe's parents drove	25 them to the park early in the day. The boys were excited and wanted to	40 make the most of the experience. They wanted to have plenty of time to	54 ride each ride. They had a great idea of how they could do this. They had	70 decided to start at one end of the park and ride each ride, one after the	86
other, until they had worked their way across the entire amusement park.	98
This way they would not miss anything!	105
The boys rode every one of the roller coasters. They held their	117 hands up high in the air as the roller coaster climbed up the tracks. Then	132 they screamed, keeping their hands raised, as the roller coaster sped down	144
the hill and whipped around the steep curves. The boys enjoyed each ride!	157
They also rode the bumper cars and loved crashing into one another while	170 rapidly racing around the track. It was exciting, jolting and loud - all at the	184 same time. The haunted house was Tom's favorite ride! Every few seconds,	196 something would jump out of the darkness and scare the boys. They	208 screamed until their throats were sore. Before realizing it, two hours had	220 passed and the boys had to rush to meet Joe's parents. They did not want	235 to be late. They were already planning to ask if they could return next	249
weekend.	250
