

WE ARE..... NB!

Students Be Aware! March, 2019

Spring Open House at Penn State Beaver

Prospective students and their families are invited to explore Penn State opportunities on April 13, beginning at 9 AM. Meet with faculty and current students, tour the campus and learn how valuable a Penn State degree can be! Space is limited, and pre-registration is required. For more information, visit <https://news.psu.edu/event/533185/2019/04/13/spring-open-house>

Financial Aid Event at LaRoche College

LaRoche College will be hosting several upcoming workshops to assist students and families with the Free Application for Financial Aid (FAFSA). The workshops are taking place on Saturday, March 9, 2019 from 10am-noon and on April 3, 2019 from 5pm-7pm in the Huber Academic Center Room 212. Attendees are required to register and must bring 2017 Federal Income Tax Returns, W-2 forms, and student and parent FSA IDs. Space is limited so register at 412-536-1125 or finaid@laroche.edu

Pennsylvania Court Reporters Association

According to research conducted by Ducker Worldwide, more than 5,500 new court reporting jobs are anticipated across the U.S. by 2018. The industry specializes in shorthand and long-standing careers. Court reporters capture conversations and convert them into written form. With an average salary of $45,000, this career has risen to the surface as a standout option for those interested in meaningful work with healthy compensation. For more information, visit www.PCRA.com or www.CCAC.edu.

ADA Nationally Accredited Dental Assisting Program

Did you know Dental Assisting is among the fastest growing occupations, with a 30% expected growth rate between now and 2020? Choffin Dental Assisting Program can help you begin an exciting career as a Dental Assistant in just 10 months. Choffin credits directly apply to advanced college courses at Youngstown State University toward a Bachelor of Science in Applied Science Degree. For more information, go to ChoffinCareer.com or call 330-744-8749.

NCST Scholarship Day

The New Castle School of Trades offers a scholarship program to deserving high school seniors. Scholarships will vary in dollar amount, depending on program preference and student test scores. Testing for scholarships will take place at the main campus in New Castle, Pa. on March 9, 2019. For further information, please contact the Admission Department at 1-800-837-8299.

Point Park University High School Media Day

Point Park University is hosting its semi-annual High School Media Day on Friday, March, 15, 2019. It's a day filled with hands on workshops, Point Park faculty and speakers from the media industry. Their Keynote speaker this year is Chris Preksta. He is the writer/director of "Echo Torch". Chris is the co-writer/director of the popular online sitcom "Pittsburgh Dad," which has amassed over 72 million views. Students will enjoy hearing about his career and he is also a Point Park alumni so he can speak to the education and opportunities that Point Park University has to offer. Register at: <https://dynamicforms.ngwebsolutions.com/Submit/Form/Page?form=518a1553-018a-49cc-9ce7-4ef20be29d84&page=113348&token=z1Wr%2BVCqdooGll8PHnkOls8b9dDGf0ppXsLnbwDgmC8%3D>

Pennsylvania American Legion—State Police Youth Week Camp

This six day camp, located at York College of Pennsylvania, is used to introduce students interested in going into law enforcement or a branch of the armed forces. Female or male students between the ages of 15 to 17 prior to entering the camp on June 11, and who have completed either their sophomore, junior, or senior year are eligible to attend. Fee of $175 includes meals and lodging. The fee is paid by the sponsoring post/unit or other civic group. To obtain sponsorship from your local American Legion Post, you must forward your application to the post at least one month prior to May 19th. Please see Ms. Hubbard in the Guidance Office for more information.

Summer at PITT

Hundreds of classes are available at the University of Pittsburgh during the summer to select high school students serious about gaining an edge in the college admissions process. Summer at Pitt is the perfect time for rising high school juniors and seniors to explore their academic potential or pursue advanced study on a topic that interests them. Flexible 4-week, 6-week and 12-week schedules and convenient day and evening courses enable students to take a class or two without sacrificing summer jobs or family vacations. For more information, visit www.summer.pitt.edu or call 412-624-7323.

Waynesburg Sports Announcing & Sports Journalism Camp

Students are invited to the 2019 Sports Announcing & Sports Journalism Camp at Waynesburg University. This is the 10th straight year Waynesburg has hosted this camp. Dates for the camp are Monday, June 17 through Friday, June 21. Students will learn and practice the skills necessary to become a successful sportscaster or sports journalist, including play-by-play, reporting, interviewing and more. To register and/or find out more about the camp, please visit Waynesburg.edu/sportsannouncingcamp or call 724-852-7725.

University of Dayton Engineering Programs

Solve real-world problems through hands-on activities with cutting-edge technology, meet experienced engineers and learn about the different branches of engineering. The University of Dayton offers 5 camps. METEC: Minority Engineering and Technology Enrichment Camp for Young Men from June 16-22 register at go.udayton.edu/metec, Summer Honors Engineering Camp from June 23-28 register at go.udayton.edu/shec, Women in Engineering Summer Camp from July 7-12 register at go.udayton.edu/wie, Entrepreneurship 101 from June 23-29 register at go.udayton.edu/entrepreneurship101 and Leadership 101 from June 23-29 register at go.udayton.edu/leadership101

IMPORTANT DATES

- March 8—Registration deadline for April 13 ACT
- March 15—Snow Make-Up day—School in session
- March 18—Snow Make Up day—School in session
- March 20—Student Two-Hour Delay
- March 28—End of third nine weeks