

Questions & Answers to RFP for replacement Axis Cameras:

- In the case where we find there is a bad cable, how does the district want to handle that problem? The District Technician has already performed troubleshooting procedures on the cameras to eliminate the possibility of bad cables.
- In the case where the cable and camera functioning correctly, but the camera is not properly connected to the switch, how would you want us to handle that? The District Technician has already performed troubleshooting procedures on the cameras to eliminate the possibility of bad ports.