MISSION STATEMENT

Noli means, “envision”. The Soboba tribe envisions a future through educational opportunities provided by Noli Indian School. Noli Indian School will provide a rigorous curriculum, which fosters academic, cultural, and social awareness. Noli Indian School will prepare students to meet societal challenges in the new millennium. Noli Indian School will adjust and modify its instructional programs to meet the needs of all its students

In 1994, Noli School became California’s first Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) funded grant school. Our school is located on the Soboba Indian Reservation, just outside San Jacinto, California, in Riverside County. All students who attend Noli are Native American, as determined by tribal enrollment or BIA affiliated status.

The school’s population consists primarily of students from the Soboba Band of Luiseno Indians, but also serves many tribes from Southern California, as well as non-reservation students living within 80 – mile radius. Noli serves students are from at least 35 Sovereign Nations from across the United States.

Noli School is an accredited by Western Association of Schools and Colleges and a Bureau of Indian Education – Division of Performance and Accountability Level One School.
