

HABITUAL DISCIPLINE PROBLEMS

A student may be declared a habitual disciplinary problem if written documentation exists that:

- In one school year, the student has threatened or extorted or attempted to threaten or extort another pupil or a teacher or other personnel employed by the school, or
- In one school year, the pupil has been suspended for initiating at least two fights on school property, at an activity sponsored by a public school, on a school bus, or, if the fight occurs within one hour of the beginning or end of a school day, on his way to or from school, or
- The student has been suspended five times for any reason.

The student declared a habitual disciplinary problem must be expelled or suspended for a period equal to one semester. The pupil must receive equivalent instruction authorized by the state board pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 392.070. The Superintendent may, for a good cause shown in a particular case, allow a modification to the suspension or expulsion requirement, if such modification is set forth in writing.
