Reports:

Elouise Goatson: Visiting each Chapter House to sign off on the Impact Aide source check. There are boxes of jackets in the conference room that still need to be given out. CI will help purchase more jackets from a grant they have. Elouise only attended the Youth Conference in Flagstaff Arizona for one day. She had a family emergency and had to leave. The keynote speaker was Charly Etsitty, she is the news reporter with 12 news channel. She is Navajo from Farmington, New Mexico. Carlos Begay and some of his students from PUSD attended this conference. They did the Pledge of Allegiance and National Anthem in Navajo. Carlos Begay was asked to do the closing prayer with that Carlos and his students did a prayer and a closing song. CI: There was a referral made by Bob Candelaria, a couple with a child has been sleeping in their car, but CI paid for one month rent for them at Lake Powell Lodging. CI will also be taking the child to go shopping for clothes.

There were several revisions on a few Navajo School Clothing forms because the heights and weights did not correspond with one another. The clothes may be in until after the New Year. We still Need Assessments surveys done, so please visit your Chapters and community. There will be an Audit January 11, 2017. We have to make sure all CIB is in place so that we can receive money for next year. There will be more audits. CI kids are shopping for materials so that they can make homemade cards for their CI sponsors.

Deborah Boone: Attended the Chapter meeting Sunday with the Christmas dinner. Proceeded with Chapter business. There are 3 buildings going up for Nursing Homes. Water line was approved for 50 or more homes in White Mesa.

Genevieve Dayzie: Did not attend the Chapter meeting due to family emergency.

Annette Tallsalt: Attended the Chapter meeting Monday, which was also had the Christmas dinner. Wasn't a whole lot on agenda but there was a presentation by the County Attorney. There is Scholarships available thru December 29 for the College Students. Next Chapter meeting is January 8, 2017 and Planning Meeting on January 2, 2017.

Stanley John: Report on the basketball games. Students excited for the Christmas break. Middle school losing 4 teachers, but Kevin Dickerson is only aware of 1.

Darlene Zahne: She does not go to Chapter meetings, but was told to have alternate to attend for her. Stated that she enjoys being an IEC member.

Kevin Dickerson: Did report for Superintendent, Rob Varner attending the Arizona Law Conference. The District hired a new Human Resource Director. The school will be audit January 11, 2017 with a follow up in 2 weeks. Every single program will be audited. We are working still working with last fiscal years and getting ready for next year. General Contractors will be putting up fire alarm systems in Lakeview and Desert View Elementary. There was 18 air conditioners mounted on the schools, 6 more to mount. Did a report on Title I, there will no more be 21st century after school programs. The afterschool and summer programs are also minimized.

New Business:
