

Pamlico County Schools

Press Release from the Pamlico County School Superintendent on the Appointment of a New Head Football Coach at Pamlico County High School

June 24, 2010

Please publish the attached article/news release from the Pamlico County School District. If you have any questions about the authenticity of this release, if you need clarification or if you wish to edit this release please call Dr. James P. Coon, Superintendent at 745-4171 (X627) or 745-4174 during normal school hours.

Sincerely,

Dr. James P. Coon
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Alan Woodard, Appointment as Pamlico County High School Head Football Coach

Mr. Patrick Whitford, former Head Football Coach has left the District to assume a new job within the Craven County School District. Pamlico County thanks Coach Whitford who has served as their Football and Golf Coach and as Athletic Director over the last 3 years.

The District is pleased to announce the appointment of their new Head Football Coach as Mr. Alan Woodard. Mr. Woodard began working for Pamlico County Schools effective July 19, 1999 within the Career and Technical Education (CTE) program as a Carpentry teacher. He has served as an Assistant J.V. Football Coach for 2 years, as the Head J.V. Coach for 6 years and as an Assistant Varsity Coach for 1 year. He took off last year due to family reasons. In his 6 years as the Head J.V. coach, he posted a record of 40 wins and 15 losses. Mr. Adam Hatch, H.S. Principal stated, "I feel that he has a strong foundation of bringing the best out of student athletics and that our program will move in a positive direction under his leadership. He is well respected as a teacher and coach within the District." Pamlico County Schools welcomes Mr. Woodard to this new role and wishes him and his teams the very best in the future.