

The Pike Regional Child Advocacy/ Family Resource Center is a non-profit, tax exempt agency established in 2004 to provide a coordinated, multi-disciplinary approach in dealing with child sexual abuse and severe physical abuse cases. Your contribution will be an investment in the life of an abused child. Join us in helping a victim become a child again. Please complete the form below and send it along with your pledge of support to Pike Regional Child Advocacy/ Family Resource Center, 118 W. Orange Street, Troy, AL 36081, or call for more information 334-670-0487.
