The 2018 Randolph County Farm Bureau Scholarship was awarded to Abbie Thompson, who graduated from Eastern Randolph High School and will be attending N.C. State University majoring in Animal Science. The scholarship program is designed to provide an opportunity for outstanding students to advocate agriculture, leadership and the Farm Bureau Federation policies. In recognition of the outstanding achievements of local students and their continuing advocacy of agriculture, the Randolph County Farm Bureau will award a $5,000 scholarship per year (up to four years) total to each student selected. Pictured are Sheela Wright, Farm Bureau board member; Abbie Thompson; and Susan and Frank Thompson, her parents.