The 2018 Courier-Tribune All-County Softball Team

Savannah Beaver
Eastern Randolph
Freshman/P

Playing unlike a freshman, Beaver was the Piedmont Athletic Conference Pitcher of the Year after hitting a 1.52 ERA and striking out 57 batters. She also led the Wildcats, hitting .362.

Charley Butler
Randolph
Senior/SS

Quick on her feet, Butler led the Tigers with 18 stolen bases. She also hit .459 and had a .932 fielding percentage. Butler will play at Louisville next season.

Halee Cagle
Southwestern Randolph
Sophomore/3B

Solid with her glove at third, Cagle hit .457 on the season and led the Cougars with 7 triples. She moved to leadoff during the season and upped her BA to .667.

Hallie Chisholm
Providence Grove
Junior/OF

The senior shined in her final season with the Tigers, leading the county in batting average (.433) with 16 runs and 17 RBIs. She signed to play with Pfeiffer in the spring.

Megan Cottrell
Randolph
Senior/C

Cottrell, who will play for Guilford College next spring, was a steady presence behind the plate and a steady bat for the Tigers, hitting .408 with 17 runs scored.

Sydney Cox
Asheboro
Sophomore/UII

The sophomore was the Blue Comets’ leadoff hitter but still hit .382 with 25 hits. She also paced AHS with a .375 fielding percentage. She has already committed to play at N.C. State.

Kaleigh Craft
Wheatmore
Sophomore/C

In just her second year of high school, Craft hit .399 with 29 hits and 10 RBIs with the Warriors playing a tough Piedmont Athletic Conference slate.

Kelsey Craven
Eastern Randolph
Sophomore/3B

Craven paced the Wildcats with 4 home runs, hitting .447 with 38 RBIs, 13 runs scored and 15 RBIs. And she has two more years left.

Catlie Ficquette
Asheboro
Senior/C/UII

A senior who has seen her name on the All-County list more than once, Ficquette finished her final season hitting .371 with a team-high 23 hits and 19 RBIs.

Maddie Hunt
Providence Grove
Sophomore/INF-OF

Hunt could be trusted to play anywhere on the field. A two-time All-PAC player, she hit .432 with 22 home runs, 15 RBIs and 8 stolen bases.

Samantha Lagrana
Southwestern Randolph
Sophomore/SS

A candidate for Player of the Year, Lagrana was the winning coach at the helm. She led the Cougars, hitting .341 with 40 RBIs and 26 RBIs. On defense, she had zero errors, 14 assists and 8 pickoffs.

Heaven Maness
Southwestern Randolph
Sophomore/SS

Aside from hitting .411 with 15 RBIs, Maness provided the Cougars with a great glove, a strong arm and plenty of speed. She had 42 putouts and 52 assists at shortstop.

Emma Saunders
Providence Grove
Sophomore/C

Saunders led the PAC in home runs with 5. She hit .409 with 30 RBIs and was a two-time All-PAC player. A former & gifted athlete, Saunders will play volleyball at Methodist in the fall.

Autumn Springer
Southwestern Randolph
Sophomore/P

Springer boasted 12 wins on the season with 5 shutouts. She finished the season with a 2.47 ERA with 113 strikeout, including 11 in one game.

Skyler Swanev
Wheatmore
Junior/PO

The junior led the Warriors, hitting .439 with 33 hits and 21 runs scored. She also reeled in 13 RBIs with 9 extra-base hits. She landed a .680 on-base and .640 slugging percentage.

Caitlin Swiggert
Trinity
Senior/3B

A steady first baseman, Swiggert had 114 putouts and a county-high .950 fielding percentage. At the plate, she hit .422 with a team-high 20 RBIs on the season with 27 RBIs and 17 RBIs.

Alli Young
Providence Grove
Junior/CF

Wagner finished her senior season pacing the Bulldogs with a .500 batting average, 34 hits, 18 RBIs and 39 extra-base hits to go with 27 RBIs and 17 RBIs.