

Attention Current RCSS Substitutes: As you are preparing for the start of the school year, please remember you need to complete the required RCSS staff compliance training prior to the first student day (August 28). Click on the "Staff" banner at the top of the randolph.k12.nc.us home page. You will see the list of required trainings on this page along with the verification form that will must be signed and sent to Human Resources. In order to remain on the approved substitute list you need to complete the trainings and submit the signed verification form to Human Resources prior to Thursday, August 24. Thank you for your continued service for our school system!
