“STAR³ Students” for February 2019

Coleridge Elementary School - Leilany Martinez Castro - 4th Grade

Leilany Martinez Castro works diligently at every task she undertakes. If she does not understand a task, she is not afraid to ask questions. Leilany is a caring, nurturing person who often helps others within the classroom. As a responsible student, she often reminds others what needs to be accomplished. With these wonderful attributes, it is easy to see why Leilany is a Coleridge Rocket, through and through! Coleridge Elementary School is proud to recognize Leilany Martinez Castro as our STAR³ Student for the month of February.

Eastern Randolph High School - Hunter Smith - 12th Grade

Hunter Smith is a strong student academically and is involved in our school and community. He has been an integral part of our JROTC program all four years of high school and has achieved a rank as high as battalion commander. Hunter's commitment to JROTC has helped prepare him for his next step after high school - the United States Air Force. He also has been a part of our student-led Young Republicans Club and the cross country, swimming, and baseball teams. During fourth block Hunter travels to a middle school and helps tutor sixth grade Language Arts students. Hunter Smith is a model citizen who has overcome adversity to achieve his goals during his time at Eastern Randolph High School, and we are proud to honor him as our STAR³ Student for February.

Farmer Elementary School - Marcie Lichiello - 4th Grade

Marcie Lichiello is a wonderful student who consistently exceeds expectations. She is always willing to go the extra mile to understand standards in both reading and math. Her inquiring mind and ability to persevere set a great example as a role model to other students. Marcie's positive and upbeat demeanor is contagious and she always wears a smile. Farmer Elementary School is proud to recognize Marcie Lichiello as our STAR³ Student for February.

Seagrove Elementary School - Owen Allmon - 5th Grade

Owen Allmon is a hard-working student and a respected member of our school community. He is helpful and kind to other students in class. He always has a positive spirit when approaching classroom tasks or doing activities outside the classroom, such as safety patrol. Owen makes the completion of classroom assignments a priority and he balances these responsibilities with participating in Beta Club. It is a pleasure to have Owen Allmon as Seagrove Elementary School's STAR³ Student for February.

Southeastern Randolph Middle School - Sarah Ledbetter - 6th Grade

Sarah Ledbetter's teachers say that Sarah is a pleasure to have in their class. She participated in basketball and softball and is a member of the Junior Beta Club. Sarah is described as humble, dependable, appreciative, works well with others, and is a good collaborator. She tries to find the positive in situations and goes over and beyond in her schoolwork. Sarah is always willing to help others, whether it is with schoolwork or just listening during a time of need. She always has a smile on her face. Her teachers and Junior Beta Club sponsor say she is an asset to have in their class and in the club. Southeastern Randolph Middle School is proud to recognize Sarah Ledbetter as our STAR³ Student for February.

Southmont Elementary School - Jaime Tellez - 2nd Grade

Jaime Tellez' teacher, Mrs. Wright, says, "Jaime comes in like a ray of sunshine every morning, greeting everyone on his way to his seat." Mrs. Wright also says, "He is always eager to learn, and works quickly, as well as efficiently. He has made major progress in his goals. He is always willing to help classmates. We are so proud of Jaime." Southmont Elementary School is proud to honor Jaime Tellez as our STAR³ Student for the month of February.

Southwestern Randolph High School - Brooke Parks - 11th Grade

Brooke Parks is really something special! She is a conscientious, respectful, and hardworking student with kindness and sincerity. One of her teachers says, "Brooke is the type of student who smiles even when she is being given 500 pages of homework." Brooke was chosen to participate in the new Advanced Placement Capstone Program at our school because of her excellent academic performance and strong leadership skills. She serves outside the classroom as an active member of our Beta Club and Fellowship of Christian Athletes club. She holds leadership positions in our Health Occupation Students of America and Unify clubs. Brooke constantly looks for ways to improve herself or the lives of others. Congratulations, Brooke Parks, Southwestern Randolph High School's STAR³ Student for February.

Southwestern Randolph Middle School - Makayla Shue - 8th Grade

Makayla Shue works extremely hard both inside and outside of class. She always has a positive outlook and you rarely see her without a smile on her face. Her positive nature is contagious to both her peers and teachers. Makayla has the talent, passion, and work ethic to balance academics and extracurricular activities. She strives to help others in any way possible. She is an active member of the Junior Beta Club and FFA, and she competes outside of school on two cheerleader teams through Randolph Gymnastics Academy. Makayla Shue is a shining example of what it means to be a star student, and Southwestern Randolph Middle School is proud to select her as our STAR³ Student for February.

Tabernacle Elementary School - Zoe Shaw - 5th Grade

Zoe Shaw was selected for the STAR³ Student award for her outstanding citizenship and positive demeanor. She is kind to everyone she meets and helps both students and adults on a daily basis. Zoe's leadership skills are extraordinary, as she often assists in helping students to their classrooms in the morning and managing the Tabernacle School Shop. Zoe greets everyone each day with a smile and offers support and assistance to the younger population of students as they enter the building each day. Zoe is also dependable and shows kindness to those she encounters. Congratulations, Zoe Shaw, for being recognized as Tabernacle Elementary School's STAR³ Student for February.

Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve - Jacob Trotter - 10th Grade

Jacob Trotter goes above and beyond in everything he does to ensure excellence and create a reflection of his best effort and personal skill set. He is a leader in and out of the classroom, rallying peers and pushing himself and others to perform at their best, expanding comfort zones and digging into whatever he applies himself to. Jacob is not only president of Uwharrie Ridge FFA, a leader on the Hunter Safety Team, Beta Club member, and artist, but works constantly to build his skill set in pursuit of becoming an agricultural engineer. He consistently demonstrates integrity, kindness, and charity, often doing so in a way that means the recipient will never know of his kindness. Jacob Trotter represents the epitome of excellence as a student leader, and Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve is proud to honor him as our STAR³ Student for February.
