Community

CLASS ACT — Asheboro City Schools Superintendent Dr. Terry Worrell presents the C.C. Cranford Citizen Award to Isaiah Thomas Ridley. The award is presented to the most outstanding citizen in each class.

JOURNEY’S END — Graduates wave to family at Eastern Randolph High School.

WE DID IT — Erin Steadman and Andrew Whatley pause for a picture at Providence Grove High School.

OUR TURN — Asheboro High School graduates watch as their fellow classmates line up for diplomas.

LAST CLASS — The Class of 2018 assembles for a final photo Friday, June 8, in front of the Ivey B. Luck Stadium before the stands are torn down and renovations begin.

Scenes from graduation

There was much pomp and circumstance; a great deal of tears, hugs, and laughter; and a little history as the Class of 2018 held graduations June 8 at Asheboro, Eastern Randolph, Providence Grove, Randleman, Southwestern Randolph, Trinity and Wheatmore high schools. Here are some scenes from that milestone.

PAUSE FOR EFFECT — A procession of students at Southwestern Randolph includes Olivia Grubbs, center.