Hayden Thomas, a 12th grader at Eastern Randolph High School, has earned an invitation to compete in the 2017 National Rifle and Pistol Junior Olympic Championships at the US Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado on April 17-20, 2017. To compete is quite an honor, as only the finest junior athletes in the nation attend. This event provides the opportunity for students to obtain possible future scholarships and a National Junior Team appointment, allowing them to take their skill set to the international level. Hayden will be standing shoulder to shoulder with the best shooters from across the U.S.
