“STAR³ Students” for January 2019

Franklinville Elementary School - Briley Ellis - Kindergarten

Briley Ellis is an amazing student who exemplifies the positive traits of a Franklinville Cardinal. She is kind, respectful, and compassionate. Her regard for others and the way she treats everyone with such grace is something to behold. Briley's character is even more evident in her relationships with others. She is truly a caring and compassionate young student, an amazing friend, and is often sought out by her peers. In addition, Briley always puts forth her best effort and works tirelessly to be the best student she can be. Her constant smile and laughter are contagious. Franklinville Elementary School is proud to be represented by Briley Ellis as our STAR³ Student for January.

Grays Chapel Elementary School - Christopher Castro Vasquez - 2nd Grade

Christopher Castro Vasquez demonstrates politeness and respect to all he meets. He completes outstanding work, takes his time to be thorough, and follows instructions. Christopher makes the right choices, is consistently kind and caring, and encourages his friends to do their best. He is fluent in English and Spanish. He not only works hard, but also is a great friend to his classmates, cares deeply for others, and wants to see them succeed. Christopher enjoys math and reading. He is determined to succeed within the classroom and motivated to do so outside the class, too. He enjoys being with family and participating in various church activities. Christopher Castro Vasquez is a great role model, and we are excited to have him representing the Grays Chapel “Blue Hawks” as our STAR³ Student for January.

Level Cross Elementary School - Lily Kye - 3rd Grade

Lily Kye is a true example of a student who is respectful, responsible, and always doing the right thing. She is hard-working and always goes above and beyond what is asked of her. Lily is caring, well-liked, and consistently willing to help a classmate who may be struggling with a new concept. Her positive attitude is contagious and you never catch Lily saying anything negative about anyone. It also is rare to see Lily without a smile on her face. Lily is an asset to our school and truly deserving of this award. Congratulations to Lily Kye, Level Cross Elementary School's STAR³ Student for January.

Liberty Elementary School - Alexis Hernandez-Lechuga - Kindergarten

Alexis Hernandez-Lechuga is an amazing student. He learned to speak English in his kindergarten year. Alexis works hard, does well in math and writing, reads above grade level, and excels in all academic areas. He also is a great role model, is respectful, and gets along well with classmates. We are proud to call Alexis Hernandez-Lechuga a Liberty Bulldog and congratulate him on being selected our STAR³ Student for January.

Northeastern Randolph Middle School - Asia Steverson - 7th Grade

Asia Steverson is an intelligent, compassionate, helpful, hard-working student who exemplifies what it means to be a STAR³ Student. She works diligently, asks questions, and always does more than what is asked of her in every assignment. As a basketball player and as a student, Asia gives 100 percent to be the very best she can be. She constantly uses her time and talents to help other students in the classroom. Whether giving pencils to classmates, helping them to get caught up, or verbally encouraging them to do better, Asia is the kind of classmate every student should want. All of these qualities are what led Northeastern Randolph Middle School to select Asia Steverson as our STAR³ Student for January.

Providence Grove High School - Andrew Ritter - 12th Grade

Andrew Ritter has blossomed this year. He has become an outgoing student leader, and in taking on the responsibility of being a peer tutor with Mr. Miller, Andrew has shown great maturity. He answers more questions in class, offers to help students without being asked, and displays self-confidence. Providence Grove High School is proud of the growth in this young man, and we are pleased to recognize Andrew Ritter as our STAR³ Student for January.

Ramseur Elementary School - Ellie Bowser - 5th Grade

Ellie Bowser is an incredible leader and role model at Ramseur Elementary School. She consistently demonstrates a strong work ethic in the classroom and shows kindness and respect to everyone she meets. Ellie is always willing to learn new concepts and grow as a student, which helps her excel academically. She is determined and committed to her school work, the Dance club, the Battle of the Books team, and to the school as Student Council president. Ellie also organized and leads a weekly student-led Devotions club. She helps anyone in need without being asked and exceeds expectations. We are proud to announce Ellie Bowser as Ramseur Elementary School's STAR³ Student for January.

Randleman Elementary School - Jacqueline McDaniel - 3rd Grade

Jacqueline McDaniel is in Mrs. Stephanie Clark's class. Jacqueline is a delightful student who is naturally curious and enjoys learning. She is equally respectful to teachers and her peers. Jacqueline exhibits self-control and makes smart choices for herself. She is truly a model student who leads by example with a quiet presence. Jacqueline is always willing to help other students and teachers in the classroom. She loves school, always has a smile on her face, and her positive attitude is inspiring. Jacqueline wants to attend college and play collegiate-level basketball. Randleman Elementary School is very excited to nominate Jacqueline McDaniel as our STAR³ Student for January.

Randleman High School - Chesney Strider - 12th Grade

For four years, Chesney Strider has served her school, set a fine example for her peers, and bettered her community. As a leader and officer in the school's FFA program, Chesney has chaired committees, taught elementary and middle school aged children, and designed award-winning parade floats. She excels at creativity, organization, and motivating others to work alongside her. One of her teachers proclaims, "Chesney has a work ethic that is rare and admirable. She understands that a positive attitude is one of the most important factors in attaining success, and she knows that success takes work." Chesney has the heart, dedication, and perseverance to attain any goal that she sets for herself. For her commitment to academics, extracurricular pursuits, and community service, Tiger Nation proudly recognizes Chesney Strider as our STAR³ Student for January.

Randleman Middle School - Jireh Price - 6th Grade

Jireh Price is focused, determined, and hard-working. He is an ideal student who is always on task while thorough and careful with his work. Jireh consistently models respect, responsibility, and doing the right thing in and out of the classroom. He has a heart of gold and seeks opportunities to be helpful to teachers and other students. Jireh has many diverse interests, is well rounded, and is a motivated team player. Teachers at Randleman Middle have enjoyed watching Jireh mature into a caring young man who works hard to include others and make them feel appreciated. He is a pleasure to teach and a valuable addition to every class. Randleman Middle School is proud to select Jireh Price as our STAR³ Student for January.
