

At Randleman Middle School, every day is a great day to be a Tiger!

So, what does it mean to be a Randleman Middle School Tiger? It means being part of a family, being where school pride is second to none. It means a commitment to excellence, emphasis on continuous improvement, and personal accountability for achieving goals.

Being a Randleman Middle School Tiger means your school's proficiency scores have grown from 36.4% in the 2012-2013 school year to 51.3% in the 2016-2017 school year.

A Randleman Middle School Tiger is part of a unique dynamic. Professional Learning Teams harness the power of data to gain a better understanding of student needs, develop proficiency goals, and facilitate student growth. The Randleman Middle School paradigm is one in which teachers and students participate jointly in goal-setting, data-tracking, reflection, and ownership of outcomes.

At Randleman Middle School, it is indeed a great day to be a Tiger!
