

Character Tea

September and October:
Responsibility and Respect

Students at Ramseur Elementary school are recognized by their teachers for showing positive character, which is based on monthly character traits. Students are invited by the school counselor Martyn Rush and the school social worker Michelle Futrell to gather and enjoy tea with their classmates. It gives students who are positive role models in their classroom a chance to have a special start to their day. Jordan Memorial United Methodist church generously provides the food and refreshments.