

Randolph County School System

“STAR³ Students” for December 2017

Archdale Elementary School - Madison Glover - 5th Grade

Madison Glover exemplifies what it means to be respectful, responsible, and always doing the right thing. If Madison sees anyone in need, she jumps right in to help, without hesitation or being asked. She is a genuinely caring person and others respond to her kindness. Maddie also is a problem solver. She helps her peers resolve conflicts, remains positive, and tries to be a friend to everyone. All of these traits have helped Maddie become a leader at Archdale Elementary in Student Council, the “Girls Excelling in Math and Science” Club, and Safety Patrol. She is a treasured member of our school family, and Archdale Elementary School is proud to honor Madison Glover as our STAR³ Student for December.

Archdale-Trinity Middle School - Mackenzie Andrews - 7th Grade

Mackenzie Andrews is a true asset to her school and to her seventh grade team. She is held in high regard by her peers, and she leads others by providing a great example of respect. Mackenzie is an intelligent, responsible, dependable, and personable young student. Her effort in class is top-notch, and she goes above and beyond her teachers' expectations. Mackenzie's exemplary work ethic and classroom performance naturally make her a positive role model for her peers. She consistently has a smile on her face and is willing to help her teachers and classmates. Because she is so deserving of this award, it is with great pride that Archdale-Trinity Middle School recognizes Mackenzie Andrews as our STAR³ Student for December.

Braxton Craven School - Ava Williamson - 6th Grade

Ava Williamson demonstrates exemplary qualities on a consistent basis. She displays an eagerness to learn and a willingness to put forth her best effort, and is responsible and respectful to others. Ava is a conscientious student who also exhibits outstanding leadership in the classroom and on Braxton Craven's Student Council. We are proud to recognize Ava Williamson as Braxton Craven's STAR³ Student for December.

Hopewell Elementary School - Maddox Mullinix - 1st Grade

Maddox Mullinix always does his best in reading, math, and other subjects. He obeys rules in the classroom and in school. Maddox respects himself and others, and he is always ready to learn. He uses kind words to talk to others and shares everything with his classmates. Maddox is responsible, works hard in every activity, and does the right thing every time. He plays fair, tries to find solutions, and avoids conflicts. Maddox Mullinix is a respectful, responsible student and is deserving of the STAR³ Student award at Hopewell Elementary School for December.

John Lawrence Elementary School - Cooper Stallings - 5th Grade

Cooper Stallings has a ready smile for both staff and students. He is willing to help and wants to do the right thing. Cooper is an older student in the school, one who younger students can trust if they have a need. He serves on the Safety Patrol and even steps in and substitutes for other Safety Patrol members if they are absent or not able to participate. Cooper is considerate, respectful, and reliable. Outside of school, he helps his church collect food for a shelter in a neighboring community. Cooper is athletic and is involved in football, basketball, baseball and Ju-jitsu - and is still able to maintain good grades. We are proud at John Lawrence Elementary School to have Cooper Stallings represent our school as the STAR³ Student for the month of December.

New Market Elementary School - Alex Raymundo - 4th Grade

Alex Raymundo truly exemplifies what it means to be a STAR³ Student. He is responsible, works hard, and strives to do his best at all times. Alex takes his responsibilities as a student and Safety Patrol member seriously, ensuring that other students stay safe and follow the rules. Alex's desire to do well and continually learn makes him a student all teachers would love to have in their classroom. Recently, Alex won the New Market Spelling Bee. New Market Elementary School is proud to recognize Alex Raymundo as our STAR³ Student for December.

Randolph Early College High School - Brandon Rancourt - 12th Grade

Brandon Rancourt has been an active member of the Raven community throughout his high school career, including serving as founder of the Glee Club, secretary of Skills USA, and vice president of Beta Club. He was given the award in his freshman seminar for having a heart of gold and he continues daily to serve others through small acts of kindness by tutoring classmates in math and Spanish. Brandon has chosen to complete a fifth year of high school to pursue his academic interests, which will allow him to graduate with an Associate in Arts and an Associate in Applied Science for Graphic Design. Somehow, Brandon finds the time to work at Homeland Creamery and also perfect his skills as a competitive pool player. Brandon Rancourt is a great joy to have at our school and we are proud to have him represent Randolph Early College High School as our STAR³ Student for December.

Trindale Elementary School - Hallie Meyer - 3rd Grade

Hallie Meyer is a role model in her third grade classroom, with both good behavior and a strong work ethic. She is respectful and polite to both students and staff. Hallie checks on other students if she suspects they are down or upset, to see what she can do to make them feel better. She also supports the school by serving on Student Council this year. Hallie has helped with the school's canned food drive and participates in many other school activities. We are proud of the high standards Hallie sets for herself and those around her, as well as her ability to exceed those standards again and again. Trindale Elementary School is proud to select Hallie Meyer as our STAR³ Student in December.

Trinity Elementary School - Morgan Rabon - 3rd Grade

Morgan Rabon sets an example for what others should be in the classroom. She is a great friend and is always there to offer a hug or warm smile to others. Morgan goes above and beyond in her school work each day. She not only meets expectations, but exceeds them in all areas, including extracurricular activities such as the 4H Club of Trinity. Morgan received AB honor roll for first quarter. She is kind and respectful to everyone with whom she comes in contact. Morgan Rabon is an absolute joy to be near, and we are proud to select her as Trinity Elementary School's STAR³ Student for December.

Trinity High School - Jennifer Wagner - 12th Grade

Jennifer Wagner is a cheerleader and a media helper. She is the first to volunteer for events such as working with little league cheerleaders, working concessions, or coming in early to assist other cheerleaders. Jennifer does anything that is asked of her. She excels academically and socially, has taken many advanced classes, and is on her way to earning an Associate Degree from Randolph Community College. Trinity High School is fortunate to have Jennifer Wagner as a student, and we are proud to select her as our STAR³ Student for December.

Wheatmore High School - Kentarrius Fuller - 12th Grade

Kentarrius Fuller is a hard worker and leader, is willing to help others, and loves to make people smile. He is often asked by teachers to complete various tasks for them throughout the school. Kentarrius is anxious to please and he makes sure he does his job well. He is responsible, demonstrates respect for others, and makes the right choices. Wheatmore High School is proud of Kentarrius Fuller for all he has accomplished, and we are proud to have him as our STAR³ Student for December.