

Randolph County School System “STAR³ Students” for November 2017

Coleridge Elementary School - Kylie Presley - 1st Grade

Kylie Presley is a responsible student who always offers a helping hand. She sets a great example for other students and is always willing to assist others in need. Without fail, Kylie is courteous to both peers and adults. She strives to do her best in every task she does and is a careful decision-maker. Kylie does not take her responsibility as a student lightly, and she is always a shining star. Coleridge Elementary School is proud to recognize Kylie Presley as our STAR³ Student for November.

Eastern Randolph High School - Mariah Hartsell - 11th Grade

Mariah Hartsell embodies what it means to be a Wildcat. As the junior class president, co-captain of the cheerleading squad, and voice for morning and afternoon announcements, Mariah constantly volunteers her time, effort, and energy to make Eastern Randolph a better place. Her positive energy and leadership show up in and out of the classroom. Mariah was selected for the Chamber of Commerce's Student LIFT program this year and volunteers often at Randolph Hospital and Quaker Lake Camp. Outside of school, Mariah is a lifeguard at the YMCA. She loves working with children and hopes to study elementary education in college. Eastern Randolph High School is proud to recognize Mariah Hartsell as our STAR³ Student for November.

Farmer Elementary School - Karina Sexton - 4th Grade

Karina Sexton is a great example of a student who works hard and tries her best every day. She is a bright student who is always engaged in the lesson that is being taught. Karina participates in class and adds her insights to discussions, especially during Reading, where she has really excelled during the first quarter. Karina is respectful to her teachers and her peers, and she helps others whenever there is an opportunity to do so. She has accomplished all of this despite some challenges in her life, which makes her positive character and dedication for learning even more admirable. Congratulations, Karina Sexton, Farmer Elementary School's STAR³ Student for November.

Seagrove Elementary School - Ethan Jordan - 5th Grade

Ethan Jordan is a soft-spoken, well-mannered student who consistently steps up to help teachers and peers. Ethan shows perseverance in all subjects and always tries his best on each assignment. He was chosen to be in charge of putting up the school flag and taking it down each day. Ethan goes out of his way to make sure other students feel cared about here at Seagrove. It is with great pleasure that we select Ethan Jordan as Seagrove Elementary School's STAR³ Student for November.

Southeastern Randolph Middle School - Nayeli Torres - 8th Grade

Nayeli Torres is considerate of both teachers and peers. She is always ready to help classmates and is an academic leader. Nayeli is a conscientious and hardworking student who places academics first. She advocates for herself and her academics. Nayeli asks questions and seeks to understand. She is a delight to have in class and is the epitome of a role model. We are fortunate to have Nayeli Torres at Southeastern Randolph Middle School and are proud to recognize her as our STAR³ Student for November.

Southmont Elementary School - Carlos Mejia-Santos - 4th Grade

Carlos Mejia-Santos is a hard worker who is always concerned with making sure he does what he should. He is a thoughtful young man who is kind and considerate to those around him. Carlos consistently worked to make up any work he had missed during a family hardship. He accepts responsibility and does not make excuses. He is a model student who makes good choices in his daily work. Southmont Elementary School is proud to select Carlos Mejia-Santos as our STAR³ Student for November.

Southwestern Randolph High School - Selena Chriscoe - 12th Grade

Selena Chriscoe's maturity, leadership, and dependability are beyond reproach. Her devotion to friends, family, and teammates is impeccable. Selena is a young student who has made the deliberate choice to use challenging life circumstances as stepping stones to exceptional academic success, and is an inspiration to those around her. Selena is a high-ranking cadet in the school's ROTC program, an active member of Beta Club, and works in a management position at a local fast food restaurant. Even so, she still finds time to volunteer in various capacities, both within and outside of school. Selena has been nominated by our school system to compete for the prestigious United States Presidential Scholars Program. Although Selena does not yet know where she will attend college, she does know that she would like to pursue a nursing degree, in hopes of one day working in neonatal nursing. Congratulations to Selena Chriscoe, Southwestern Randolph High School's STAR³ Student for November.

Southwestern Randolph Middle School - Lola Reza - 8th Grade

Lola Reza truly exemplifies what it means to be a STAR³ Student. She is a hard worker who is always polite to teachers and peers. She strives to do her best in all subjects, eagerly responds to questions, and helps others. Lola is friendly, kind, and intelligent. She works hard to demonstrate leadership in school through her participation in clubs and organizations. Lola is not only president of the school's FFA chapter, but also a Guil-Rand Federation officer for FFA, holding the office of secretary. She took home second place in the FFA public speaking competition last year. Lola is Beta Club vice-president and is active in many service projects for the community and school. Everyone at Southwestern Randolph Middle School knows that Lola Reza is someone who can always be relied upon, and we could not be prouder to call her our STAR³ Student for November.

Tabernacle Elementary School - Brianna Hughes - 4th Grade

Brianna Hughes is an exemplary student who is respectful, responsible, and reliable. She puts her best foot forward in everything she does. Brianna's desire to do well and continually learn makes her a student all teachers would love to have in their classroom. Brianna has experienced some personal challenges, yet she continues to strive to do her best, has a positive demeanor, is helpful in the classroom, and is a friend to all. Congratulations to Brianna Hughes, Tabernacle Elementary School's STAR³ Student for November.

Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve - Emily Hunt - 8th Grade

Diligent, disciplined, and respectful are some of the words that describe Emily Hunt. She is the type of student every teacher dreams about having in their class. Emily is considerate, compassionate, and hardworking. Her cheerful smile and inviting demeanor are prevalent as soon as you walk into the room with her. Emily's willingness to help others is evidenced by her participation with the Uwharrie Ridge Service Club and the work she does in her church. She is an amazing individual and a true joy to have in class. We are proud to have her represent Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve as our STAR³ Student for November.
