

Randolph County School System “STAR<sup>3</sup> Students” for January 2017

Franklinville Elementary School - Addie Beasley - 2nd Grade

Addie Beasley is a star student at Franklinville Elementary School. She is a hard worker who strives for success. Addie is a role model who shows others the meaning of being respectful and responsible. Her smile lights up both our school and the community. It is with great pride that Franklinville Elementary presents Addie Beasley as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Grays Chapel Elementary School - Madelyn Craven - 3rd Grade

Madelyn Craven is a student who puts her "best foot forward" and is always willing to take positive chances. She does not get upset if things do not work out her way. Her attitude is to try and try again until she succeeds. Maddy exhibits an excellent combination of strong character, hard work ethic, positive attitude, and excellent behavior. She is always kind to other students and in return, has many good friends in the classroom and throughout the school. You cannot help but have a good day when you see Maddy's smiling face come through the classroom door in the morning! She is a positive role model and we are proud to have Madelyn Craven as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Level Cross Elementary School - Ryan Norris - 5th Grade

When you think of someone who is respectful, responsible, and always doing the right thing, Ryan Norris comes to mind. His behavior is exceptional, he works hard in the classroom, and he is a friend to everyone. When someone needs help, Ryan will do whatever he can to assist them. He is very respectful to his teachers by always doing what is asked of him without complaining. He is dependable and is a role model for other students in his classroom. Ryan always tries his hardest and never gives up, no matter how hard a task might be. He tries to solve problems on his own, and only approaches an adult for help when absolutely needed. Ryan Norris is very deserving of this honor and Level Cross Elementary is pleased to recognize him as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Liberty Elementary School - Lilly Poole - 3rd Grade

This is Lilly Poole's second nomination for this special award. She always does the right thing and is well liked by her peers. She loves to read and write. She likes to read Dork Diaries and in her spare time, writes her own chapter books for her class to read! At home, she plays with her sister and brothers. She loves the teachers and the library at Liberty School. We proudly submit Lilly as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student and thank her for helping make Liberty School "A Great Place to Learn." Liberty Elementary School is pleased to recognize Lilly Poole as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Northeastern Randolph Middle School - Morgan McMasters - 7th Grade

Morgan McMasters was nominated by her teachers for being the epitome of a respectful student while maintaining outstanding grades. Additionally, Morgan is an example to her peers on how to navigate the ups and downs of life with a grace and humility that are mature for her age. Never one to whisper an ill word, doing the right thing seems as effortless as breathing to Morgan. She is well on her way to accomplishing whatever she sets her mind to, and we are honored to be a part of her journey. Northeastern Randolph Middle School is proud to announce Morgan McMasters as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Providence Grove High School - Kelsey Williams - 12th Grade

Kelsey Williams was selected to be the STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for Providence Grove due to having a heart and mind of service. She is dedicated and trustworthy. It is with great honor that we recognize Kelsey as an outstanding and honorable young student. Currently she plays basketball and softball at Providence Grove, and is ranked 5th in the class of 2017. Kelsey is planning to attend a four-year college where she plans to major in Agriculture Business. It is with great pride that Providence Grove High School honors Kelsey Williams as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Ramseur Elementary School - Juan Juarez - 5th Grade

Juan Juarez is a consistent role model for his peers and a model student for his teachers. His positive attitude, willingness to help others, and respectful mannerisms leave a lasting impression. He always uses polite and courteous manners. Not only does Juan exemplify excellent character, but he also completes his work at the highest of quality. He is an active participant in the classroom, and he sets an example for others to follow. His perfect combination of good academics, hard work, and outstanding character make Juan a wonderful asset to our school. Ramseur Elementary School is proud to have Juan Juarez represent our school as the STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Randleman Elementary School - Ronaldo Murillo - 3rd Grade

Ronaldo Murillo is an example of what it means when people say that becoming a man is not about age, but about how you act. If you were to follow Ronaldo for a day, you would encounter his contagious smile and positive attitude. You might see him stop to offer his assistance to a kindergarten student who needs help tying a shoe or to someone who dropped a book. As the day goes on, you would notice that he has respect running through his veins. He often stops to talk to adults, with an uncanny ability to make everyone smile when he speaks. He talks the talk and walks the walk of what one would define as a STAR<sup>3</sup> Student. Ronaldo Murillo is ALWAYS "Respectful, Responsible, and Doing the Right Thing," and Randleman Elementary is honored to select him as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Randleman High School - Rosa Hernandez-Torres – 12th Grade

Rosa Hernandez-Torres is intelligent, talented, compassionate, and a very good friend to her peers. She is an A student, president of the Tri-M Music Honor Society, and a member of Beta Club and AIM. She is organized and an amazing hard worker. She has been accepted at UNC-Wilmington, early decision. She tutors other students in a variety of subjects, has taken students home who have been stuck at school for various reasons, and goes out of her way to make friends with students she sees as quiet and outliers. Randleman High is proud to select Rosa Hernandez-Torres as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Randleman Middle School - Gabriel Matson - 7th Grade

Gabriel Matson has been an office assistant for the past two years. He carries out his job responsibilities without having to be told. Gabriel goes out of his way to help others in any way he can. He is an excellent role model for other students and is willing to stand up for others. He consistently respects authority in and beyond the classroom. He takes pride in his work and always does what is asked of him. Gabriel is known for doing the right thing even if his peers do not see it that way. He volunteers to be a peer helper in class to help those who may need a little extra help. Gabriel is a young man with integrity and a positive attitude. His smile is contagious and brightens our day at Randleman Middle! We are proud to recognize Gabriel Matson as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.
