Loflin receives RCC Retiree Scholarship

ASHEBORO— Katlyn Danielle Loflin of Seagrove has been awarded the Randolph Community College Foundation Retiree Scholarship for the 2015-16 school year.

The scholarship was established to honor retired RCC faculty and staff members.

Loflin, who will graduate from Southwestern Randolph High School as a member of the Class of 2015, plans to study photography at RCC. She was chosen from among the 2015-16 Presidential Scholar applicants for the $1,000 scholarship.

Her goal has always been to become a photographer and she hopes to open her own studio one day.

At SWRHS, Loflin played on the volleyball and basketball teams and was co-captain of the volleyball team in 2014. She also volunteered for Christians United Outreach Center through the Seagrove Food Bank.

Loflin is the daughter of Charles and Wanda Loflin of Seagrove.

RCRSP Honors Senior

ASHEBORO — Randolph County Retired School Personnel awards a $1,000 scholarship annually to a Randolph County high school senior who plans to join the teaching profession.

Scholarship applications go out in early March to all public high schools in Randolph County. The scholarship committee reviews all applications and selects a recipient based on five criteria: Character, school record, intellectual promise, leadership and need.

Funding for the scholarship comes mainly from donations given by retired teachers who wish to help deserving students to become teachers.

On Friday, May 22, RCRSP awarded its $1,000 scholarship to Jonna Nance, a senior at Providence Grove High School. Nance will attend N.C. State University. She plans to become an agriculture teacher.
