

Each year the School of Visual, Performing, and Communication Arts invites students in grades seven to twelve from eastern and central North Carolina to submit artwork for the Scholastic Art Awards for Eastern/Central North Carolina exhibition. Barton College sponsors this recognition of student creative talent from Winston-Salem to the coast.

Listed below are the students from the Randolph County School System who have been selected from the Eastern NC region to receive regional Scholastic Art Awards for 2017. All of the students are from Wheatmore High School.

Gold Key Award Recipients

Hailey Butler - "Deceit"

Christian Faulkner - "Focus on Your Target"

Honorable Mention

Natalie Gallimore - "Paisley"

Anna Longuillo - "Fields to Mountains"

Aaron Pagan - "Lonely Pink Boy Silhouette"

The visual arts teacher at Wheatmore High School is Lori-Beth Russell.