In honor of American Education week Natalie Cumpton, HR Coordinator at UNILIN in Thomasville, spent a half-day at Trinity High School with Interim Principal Tim Setzer, as part of the Principal for a Day program organized by Asheboro-Randolph Chamber of Commerce’s Business and Education committee. Pictured here, Cumpton spent part of the day visiting Trinity’s career-technology classes including this personal finance class. From left, personal finance instructor Renee Driggers, Cumpton and Academy of Hospitality and Tourism coordinator Jandra Dillon.