The Trinity High School band played the National Anthem as part of the ceremony which commemorated Pearl Harbor Day.

Lone bugler Andrew Wantuch sounded the Flag Retreat as the JROTC color guard lowered the American flag at Monday’s memorial observance of the event that catapulted the United States into World War II.

Squad Commander Morgan Davis and Col. Michael Humphrey greet Rep. Pat Hurley prior to a formal retirement ceremony held in honor of Pearl Harbor Day Dec. 7 at Trinity High School.

The Trinity High School JROTC unit salutes as the Color Guard retires a flag during the Pearl Harbor Day observance. The last time this flag was raised it was at the Arizona memorial in Hawaii, where an attack was carried out. During the day the flag was flown at half staff to honor the 2,403 victims who were killed in the Japanese surprise attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941.

The Trinity High School band took part in Monday’s Pearl Harbor remembrance ceremony. Pictured above, the brass section plays patriotic tunes.